

Finding places to study

- Weaver Library offers wifi, study rooms, and different places to study throughout the building. Here's what you need to know.
  - Wear face coverings at all times, including inside study rooms.
  - Eating and drinking are not allowed in the building, with the exception of drinking from water bottles.
  - Scan your CatCard outside the library's west entrance doors.
  - Reserve a study room (one person per study room) if you need a quiet room or use designated study spaces throughout the library.
  - Family study rooms (one family per study room) can be reserved on the 4th floor for a maximum of three hours. Graduate students and faculty can apply for a 30-day assigned room during the academic year.